WATCH: Seek Justice

READ: Matthew 25:35-40

DO: Have you ever passed a homeless person on the side of the road who had a sign saying they were hungry? The most common response of most people is to continue walking by, making sure not to make any eye contact. The second most common response is to give that person money, in hopes they will use it to buy food and water. But how many times do you see others giving that person food or water? Consider this, the next time you see a person in need, why not meet their needs. That may mean buying them a meal, a litre of water, or even a pair of shoes. Remember Jesus said, “whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.”
