READ: Isaiah 55:10-11; Romans 15:4

DO: Has anyone ever used the argument that the Bible cannot relate to today's problems and to the deep pains we go through because it was written during a very different time? According to Paul, the things that were written before were written for our learning and encouragement. Choose one of the following topics that are relevant to our current day and age, and discover what the Bible has to say about them:

- 1) Pride of life
- 2) Lust
- 3) Peer Pressure
