DO: Measuring success. Have you been measuring success by the standards of society, or by the standards of God? Society's way of measuring success has been skewed, but God's standard still remains, even today. On a piece of paper, draw a line down the middle. Label one side of the paper, "Society" and the other side of the paper "God." Next, compare society's standards of success to God's. Chances are, you are much more successful in God's eyes, and that's what REALLY matters.
